

Harrold G. Geiger, of Hearne, Robertson county, was born in Lexington district, South Carolina, in 1839; moved to Texas in 1859, and located near Hempstead, Austin (now Waller) county; was born and raised a slave, and received no education except what he has acquired by his own exertion; is a blacksmith and wagon maker.